About Me

Good day! My name is Nicole Antoinette Pantinople, and I am a fourth-year secondary education student at University of Mindanao with a focus in science. I grew up in a family of teachers and know that being a high school science teacher is my calling. My passion for helping others has been evident in my involvement in University of Mindanao as a student teacher. Through those experiences I have learned to interact with a diverse group of people, which has increased my ability to relate to others. I have also had the opportunity to create lessons for my students that focused on life skills like teamwork, communication, and time management.
